Dear [REDACTED]

In a recent conversation with General Antonelli, Commandant, Industrial College of the Armed Forces, he said it would be helpful to those responsible for the ICAF curriculum if they could get constructive criticism on course content from past students. They are interested in such information as:

(1) The lengthening or shortening of a particular "core unit";

(2) In retrospect, do you feel your career in the Agency was enhanced by your attendance?

(3) Did you attend at the proper time in your career, etc.?

(4) Any other views, comments or critique that you believe would help General Antonelli in his efforts to improve ICAF's curriculum.

Would you please take some time to think about the particular session you attended and, if possible, come up with a few brief constructive comments that I could pass on to General Antonelli.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
